For your information and convenience, we would like to explain the handling of formalities to you: You have booked private rooms here. You will be liable for any damages caused by you. The rent must be paid in full upon moving in (see booking confirmation).
In the interest of subsequent guests, smoking is prohibited in the rooms.

We have one big request: If there is something that does not meet your expectations to the fullest satisfaction, please feel free to contact your host immediately. Your host will be delighted to take care of it according to arrangement.

The deposit amounts to Euro/Swiss franc.

You get it back upon returning the key when moving out. However, a final cleaning charge may be deducted in addition to the agreed compensation, if you leave the property particularly dirty. During your stay you are responsible for the cleaning, unless the host requests cleaning house rules for remuneration.

Please leave your accommodation until 11 o'clock on the day of your departure.

Please note: Basically you have booked the room for the period of time as stated in the booking confirmation. Should you wish to extend your stay, please contact the company Urbanbnb.de immediately because you have no legal right to an automatic extension and the accommodation will be assigned to other guests after your agreed date of departure. It is therefore solely your responsibility if an extension is no longer possible later. Only the Urbanbnb.de Company is in charge of extensions or questions concerning booking, not the host. Also note that when you move out, you are not entitled to any refund for periods of time not taken, even if these are then assigned to other guests. In the event of such occurrences, we will do our best to try to find a solution, but here however, it is again up to you to give notice to the Urbanbnb.de Company exclusively about changes or early departures (see also conditions of cancellation in booking confirmation).

Your host and the Urbanbnb team wish you a pleasant stay.
